Lannie Brant*

“I am very excited to be able to represent Camden County at the state level,” stated Commissioner Brant. “It is a wonderful opportunity for our county to receive this high degree of recognition in our efforts to enhance the sustainability of our environmental resources on behalf of our citizens.”

The ACCG Natural Resources and the Environment Policy Committee works to promote protection and sustainable use of natural resources by developing consensus positions and advocating on behalf of Georgia counties on issues such as water supply, water quality, air quality, water and sewer utilities, land use planning, and solid and hazardous waste management.

As chair of the committee, Commissioner Brant will serve an important leadership role in presenting the recommendations of the Natural Resources and the Environment Policy Committee to the ACCG Legislative Leadership Conference.

ACCG is Georgia’s county association and works on behalf of county officials and their communities by providing public policy and legislative advocacy, leadership development, civic and community engagement initiatives, insurance and retirement programs that specialize in local
