*Advance Voting is for all registered Camden County voters, regardless of polling place.

The deadline to register to vote in the November 8, 2022 General Election is Tuesday, October 11, 2022. Voters may check their registration status or register to vote online through the Georgia My Voter Page \(MVP\). Sample Ballots for the November 8, 2022 General Primary Election are available through the Georgia MVP.

Absentee ballots may be requested through October 28, 2022. Additionally, Camden County voters may return their absentee ballot by mail or in person to the BoER offices located on the 1st floor of the Government Services Complex at 200 East 4th Street in Woodbine from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. or at the Absentee Ballot Drop Box located at the satellite BoER Office in Kingsland during early voting hours as listed above.

On Election Day, electors should vote at their assigned polling place between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Registered voters can go to the Georgia MVP to check their registration status, verify polling location, request an absentee ballot, or check the status of their returned absentee ballot.

The use of masks for all electors during the Advance in-person voting opportunities is optional. Social distancing is encouraged. Poll workers will be disinfecting all voting equipment throughout each day of in-person voting.

About Camden County Board of Elections & Registration (BoER): Formed January 1, 2019, the Board of Elections & Registration is comprised of five members, one from each district, appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. The Board has the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the elections superintendent of Camden County; the municipal election superintendent of the City of Kingsland, the City of St. Marys, and the City of Woodbine; and the Board of Registrars of Camden County, which is provided for under Chapter 2 of Title 21 of the O.C.G.A., the "Georgia Election Code."
