FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ICMA to Recognize Steve Howard with Local Government Service Award

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – September 21, 2015 – Steve L. Howard, County Administrator of Camden County, Georgia, will receive a twenty five-year service award from ICMA, the premier local government leadership and management organization. Mr. Howard's achievement will be celebrated at a special ceremony on Wednesday, September 30, 2015, as part of the 101st ICMA Annual Conference in Seattle, Washington.

ICMA Service Awards recognize and celebrate members' dedication to public service and professional management at the local level. Awards are based on the number of years of full-time employment in local government. Mr. Howard has also made significant contributions to local government organizations, and he has a track record of implementing programs that promote quality and efficiency and responsible and responsive county government.

About ICMA: ICMA advances professional local government worldwide. Its mission is to create excellence in local governance by developing and advancing professional management of local government. ICMA, the International City/County Management Association, provides member support; publications, data, and information; peer and results-oriented assistance; and training and professional development to city, town, and county experts and other individuals and organizations throughout the world. The management decisions made by ICMA's 9,000 members affect 185 million individuals living in thousands of communities, from small villages and towns to large metropolitan areas.
