FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jennie Sikes Named Camden County Employee of the 2nd Quarter

WOODBINE, GEORGIA - January 25, 2016 – Camden County Government's Employee Recognition Committee is pleased to announce Sergeant Jennie Sikes of Camden County Sheriff's Office as our Employee of the 2nd Quarter for fiscal year 2016. Sergeant Sikes will be formally recognized with this award at the Board of County Commissioners meeting scheduled for Tuesday, February 9, 2016.

Sergeant Sikes is Shift Supervisor at the Camden County Detention Facility. She always goes above and beyond the call of duty to ensure the safety and well-being of not only her co-workers but the inmates as well. She implements policy and is willing to help educate fellow officers when it comes to booking, release paperwork, warrants, training, and any new software.

Sergeant Sikes is up for any challenge, no matter the outcome. She is an energetic, hard worker who gives the Sheriff's Office her best at all times. While dedicated to her position Sergeant Sikes believes in her team and always encourages communication with fellow co-workers while showing one another compassion and consideration on and off the job. She is an aiding hand to new and seasoned officers when needed even if the officer is not on her shift. Sergeant Sikes has never asked for recognition or praise for the work she does. She has a passion for helping other officers as well as improving the jail. Sergeant Sikes is an irreplaceable asset to the Camden County Sheriff's Office and we are extremely proud to have her on our team.
