

Camden County Sheriff's Office - Jim Proctor, Sheriff
P.O. Box 699 - 209 E. 4th Street, Woodbine, GA 31569
Phone (912) 510-5100 Fax (912) 510-5144 www.camdensheriff.org

Press Release

https://twitter.com/camden_sheriff
www.facebook.com/camdencountysheriff
camdencountysheriff.tumblr.com

Citizen's Academy Graduation

(Woodbine, GA, April 11, 2016) – The Camden County Sheriff's Office Citizens' Academy Class 2016-01 graduated last Thursday, April 8, 2016. Sheriff Proctor welcomed guest speaker District Attorney Jackie Johnson. Captain Chaney handed out the trophy for top shooter to Steve Walker. During the 8-session class the students learned about and experienced first hand the function and duties of the different divisions within the Sheriff's Office including Administration, Court Security, E-911, Corrections, Patrol, Investigations, Interdiction, Training, Warrants, Drug Enforcement and Community Outreach.

Left to Right: Capt. Larry Bruce, Allison Weekley Steve Walker, Merinda Watson, Diane Lustenader, Steven Saniz, Randi Kramer, Bob Lustenader, Monica Dyals, Eddie Allen, Cheryl Tacconelli, Thomas Cyphens, Renee Crews, and Sheriff Jim Proctor

As part of the class, students toured the Camden County Jail and the 911 Dispatch Center, interacted with the K-9s and their handlers, fired simulated and real ammunition, investigated a crime scene and conducted a mock trial with members of the District Attorney's office. Ride-a-longs with on-duty patrol deputies were also available. Students were introduced to just how much the Sheriff's Office is a part of, and works cooperatively with, a larger network of local, regional and state public safety and public service agencies.

The Sheriff's Citizens' Academy was established for citizens who are 18 years or older who are interested in a productive partnership with members of local law enforcement and public safety. For more information or an application for the Sheriff's Citizens' Academy please call 912-510-5100.

###

For additional information contact:
Capt. Larry Bruce (912) 510-5119 Cell (912) 258-6091
Fax: (912) 510-5144 E-Mail: jlbruce@co.camden.ga.us
Release No. 2016-01