FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2016 “Showcase Camden County” Photo Contest

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – April 29, 2016 – The Camden County Board of Commissioners is pleased to announce they are bringing back the “Showcase Camden County” Photo Contest. The 2016 “Showcase Camden County” photo contest is open to all amateur and professional photographers who would like to submit their best photos of Camden County, Georgia. Camden’s natural landscapes and unique area events provide limitless creative inspiration to individuals that enjoy seeing the world through the lens of a camera.

The 2016 photo contest calls for photos to be submitted under one of several categories: Landscapes, Nature/Wildlife, Transportation, and Current Events/People. Contestants may submit no more than two (2) entries per category or up to eight (8) entries total if so desired. After the deadline, a committee will select a winner from each category. One overall winner will then be chosen from among the top photo in each category. The overall winner’s top photo will be featured in the 2016 Annual Report. All photo contest winners will be publicly recognized during a Board of County Commissioner’s meeting.

Photos must be submitted either by mail to the Board of County Commissioners, c/o Katie Bishop, P.O. Box 99, Woodbine, Georgia, 31569, or dropped off at either the Government Services Complex located at 200 East 4th Street in Woodbine, or at the County Annex Building, Office of Planning & Development, located in Kingsland. Each entry must be accompanied by a completed entry form. All submissions must be received on or before November 11, 2016. More information, regarding the photo contest & rules can be found at www.camdencountyga.us.
