Camden Sheriff's Office Offers Citizens New Tool in Crime Prevention

Woodbine, GA – July 8, 2016 - The Camden County Sheriff's Office has unveiled the newest tool in crime prevention called OffenderWatch. OffenderWatch tracks the registered sex offenders that are located within Camden County.

Sheriff Jim Proctor said "Our office is pleased to provide OffenderWatch for the Citizens of Camden County. OffenderWatch is the nation's leading registered sex offender management and community notification tool with hundreds of leading agencies in dozens of states utilizing this service."

Citizens can connect with the Camden County Sheriff's Office website at www.camdensheriff.org and click on the tab Sex Offenders search. This will enable the reader to follow the simple instructions and be able to determine if a registered sex offender is living in your neighborhood.

Sheriff Jim Proctor said "The addition of this tool affords the citizens of Camden County the ability to determine if any concerns exist in the community in which they live. The safety and security of our children is of the utmost importance. The extra information provided by the service can reassure the community that the registered sex offenders are being tracked and monitored."
