PUBLIC NOTICE

July 28, 2017

- Vector will be in Camden County on Thursday for a low altitude test of its Vector-R launch vehicle.
- This test is being conducted under a Part 101 authorization from the Federal Aviation Administration.
- The launch will take place completely within the confines of private property. No impact on the general public is expected.
- Coordination with local, state and federal authorities is being conducted pursuant to instructions from the FAA.
- The test is not open to the public or the press, but Vector and Camden County will brief interested parties before and after the launch.

About Camden County: Located in the extreme southeast corner of Georgia, Camden County truly is “Georgia’s Coastal Community of Choice.” Originally formed in 1777, Camden County is best known for its rich history, natural scenic beauty and Southern hospitality. Our vision is helping to make this the best place to live by preserving and enhancing the history and quality of life, while promoting smart growth and providing an efficient, effective and responsive government.
