Katie Howard Speaks at Thought Leader Summit

WOODBINE, GEORGIA – October 31, 2017 – Camden County Senior Director of Human Resources, Katie Howard, spoke as part of the Human Resources Panel at the inaugural Ashford University’s Forbes School of Business and Technology Thought Leader Summit on Tuesday, October 24, 2017 in San Diego, California.

Steve Forbes, Chairman and Editor-in-Chief of Forbes Media was the keynote speaker. Additional panels included leadership, technology, marketing, and capital allocation. The summit sought to provide an opportunity for business leaders to discuss and share with each other as well as offer direct interaction with senior leaders and strategists.

“This was a wonderful opportunity for Camden County to be represented to a large, diverse audience of business professionals,” said County Administrator Steve Howard. “Katie was able to convey her experience and expertise in human resources as well as learn from other industry leaders.”

Katie Howard

Howard has a Bachelor’s Degree from Wright State University. In 2006, she obtained her Professional in Human Resources Certification. She also currently sits on the McKinney Medical Center Board, a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) based out of Waycross, Georgia.

About the Forbes School of Business & Technology: Established in 2015, the Forbes School of Business & Technology Board of Advisors provides support and counsel to the Executive Dean of the Forbes School of Business & Technology at Ashford University.
